Searching the News in LexisNexis

From the GALILEO homepage, choose Databases A-Z, then L, then find LexisNexis Academic.

How To Search Newspapers by State

1. Select All News from the Search by Content Type menu
2. Type a subject in the search box
3. Click Advanced Options
4. Select a region from the drop-down box
5. Select a location from the list (this list will refresh depending on what you choose from the By Region drop-down)
6. Click Apply
7. Click Search

How to Find Articles from Specific Newspapers

Follow these steps to get good results:

1. On the LexisNexis homepage, type your question or keywords inside the red box.
2. Select Advanced Options.
3. In the Source box, start typing the name of the newspaper you want. Important: Click on the name when it appears.
4. Click “Apply,” which will return you to the Search page where you can click “Search” to get your results.